
C3 is recorded but excluded from the decision rule: comparing two different systems means the intervention differs by construction, so it is the thing compared, not a condition on it.